

Facilitator Application

Icebreakers is a confidential support group for individuals who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans, and/or queer or who are struggling with their sexual or gender identity. Facilitators of this group will be responsible for leading discussions on a range of topics including coming out, LGBTQ identity development, and resources for support. In addition to this application, Facilitators will be interviewed by Ted Lewis, Associate Director of Common Ground for LGBTQ Campus Life as well as complete a two hour training program. Please note, Icebreaker Facilitators are required to be Safe Zone Allies. Please return this form to Ted Lewis (tlewis3@richmond.edu, Common Ground Tyler Haynes Commons 325).

Preferred First Name: _____

Last Name: _____

Gender Pronoun: _____

Years at UR: _____

Sexual Identity<sup>1</sup>: _____

Gender Identity: _____

Racial/Ethnic Identity: _____

E-mail Address: _____

Phone Number: _____

Icebreakers meets from 5pm-7pm at least twice a month.
Please indicate which days you are available from 5pm-7pm.

Monday     Tuesday     Wednesday     Thursday     None

Why do you wish to be a facilitator for Icebreakers? (Please use separate sheet if necessary):

<sup>1</sup> Please note you are NOT required to provide identity information and an answer of "Prefer Not to Disclose" is acceptable.